Grove HOA Board Election 2013

On Thursday, November 14, The Grove HOA held its Annual Meeting and Election of Officers. Up for consideration were three seats on the Board with four candidates vying to take them: Gerry Mancuso, Earl Nunnally, Kathy Morris, and Michael D. Rogers.

Having reached a quorum with 206 proxies, the election was conducted. 26 residents were in attendance.

Results: Gerry Mancuso, Kathy Morris, and Earl Nunnally were elected to the Board to serve two year terms. Continuing to serve are John Romano and Gary Powers.

HOA Assessments Due!

Annual Grove HOA assessments for 2014 will remain at $385.00. Please watch your incoming mail for a statement from Associa in early December. If you have not received your statement by December 15, 2013 contact the community manager Carolyn Grimes at: cgrimes@communitygroup.com or 804-270-1800. Assessments must be paid by January 31, 2014. To avoid penalties please remit promptly. Note:

Homeowners in Krim Point, Ridgemoor, and Scotter Hills must pay assessments to their individual HOA as well as dues to The Grove.

Remember to Recycle

Grove Clubhouse Reminder

By Shelley Neofotistos, Clubhouse Coordinator

The online Clubhouse Reservation System is still "under construction" so if you would like to check availability and/or reserve the clubhouse, please contact Shelley Neofotistos at 897-8279 or email paris972@msn.com. The rental fee is $100 for a 6 hour block and only $5 for any additional hour(s).

Renting is available to Grove Residents only and is a GREAT place to host your special event!

Stay OFF the ICE!

Please discuss with your children the dangers associated with the pond in The Grove during the winter. Explain to them the possibility of falling through the surface of the pond on ice that appears to be frozen. Our pond is quite deep in some areas, and although it may look frozen on the edges, in all likelihood it is not.

Scams Linked to Affordable Care Act's Health Insurance

Attorney General Ken Cuccinelli warned on Oct. 16, 2013, that in the wake of the Oct. 1 rollout of the health insurance exchanges created by the Affordable Care Act (ACA, also known as Obamacare), con artists are already scamming consumers with fake web sites and phone calls. Consumers seeking insurance coverage through the online exchanges (also referred to as health insurance marketplaces) provide personal information to determine which plans are available to them and to sign up for coverage.

"Many citizens are mandated to buy insurance from this federal government-run exchange, and because they have to enter such detailed personal information online, scammers are finding this a target-rich environment to confuse people and steal their information in the process," said Cuccinelli. "Scammers are sending out official-looking emails with links that don't go to the health insurance exchange, but to a bogus web site. While people think they're typing in detailed personal information to apply for health insurance, they're actually giving scammers all the information they need to commit identity theft."

The attorney general is warning Virginians about some of the possible ways scammers are attempting to commit fraud.

He offers the following tips:

- Do not give personal information such as Medicare or Social Security numbers, bank account numbers, credit card or debit card numbers, or your home address in response to unsolicited telephone calls.
- Only provide personal information if you initiate the contact. No one from the government will call, email, or text you to sell you an insurance plan or ask for personal information.
- Don't be swayed by high-pressure visits, mail solicitations, emails, texts, or phone calls from people pretending to work for the government. No one should threaten you with legal action if you do not sign up for a plan.
- Ask for credentials from anyone who wants to assist you in enrolling. In addition to your own licensed insurance agent, there are only two types of assistants who can help you sign up: Certified Application Counselors and Navigators.

o Certified Application Counselors – these are people who work for organizations, such as hospitals, and who have been certified by the Center for Medicare and Medicaid o Navigators – these are individuals or organizations trained to assist consumers in understanding their insurance options. The law forbids navigators from recommending specific health plans or coverage.

Navigators are funded through state and federal grant programs, and must complete comprehensive training.

There is no charge for their services. You may locate a navigator in Virginia by visiting www.HealthCare.gov or by calling 1-800-318-2596.

- Beware of anyone asking for money to enroll you in a health insurance exchange. If the individual is a legitimate health insurance assistant (a navigator or a certified application counselor), they will NEVER ask you for money.

Your insurance agent can accept premium payments, however.

- Beware of anyone who tries to sell you an Obamacare insurance card. It may be a trick to get your money but not enroll you in a health insurance plan. You must actually apply for and enroll in a plan; you can't just buy an insurance card. Similarly, watch out for "fake" products such as prescription cards. They may look real, but may only be medical discount cards.

- Communicate directly with the official exchange when you are ready to purchase insurance. Unless you are using a licensed insurance agent, navigator, or a certified application counselor, the only way to sign up is to use the official web sites found by going to www.HealthCare.gov or by calling 1-800-318-2596. Avoid look-a-like web sites and look for web sites that have .gov on the end of the web site address.

- If you are a Medicare beneficiary, you do not need to purchase insurance on the exchange.

If you believe you have been a victim of a scam, the Office of the Attorney General's Consumer Protection telephone counselors are available to assist you with your consumer questions. Please call the Consumer Protection Hotline at 1-800-552-9963 if calling from Virginia, or 804-786-2042 if calling from the Richmond area. The Consumer Protection office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Chesterfield Alert Program

Chesterfield County has launched a new mass notification service that allows you to be alerted in the event of emergencies, weather events or other significant adverse conditions. You can opt-in by entering your contact information and subscribing to notifications applicable to you based on your location. The information you provide is protected and will not be used for any other purpose.

How It Works

When a notification regarding a safety hazard or concern is issued, you will receive a message on the voice or text communication method you registered. If requested for the notification, you can confirm you have received the message and you will not be contacted by any other methods regarding that specific notification. If you do not confirm, the system will continue to attempt to reach you via the contact paths you registered.

Signup for Notifications

Create an account at www.chesterfieldalert.com and add your contact and location information into the mass notification system. Your information is kept strictly confidential.

Stop Receiving Notifications

You can stop receiving notifications at any time by removing your contact information from your profile.

Texting While Driving

Texting while driving is a very serious safety problem throughout the United States. Many serious, and some fatal, accidents have occurred as the result of someone being distracted because of texting. Texting while driving became a primary offense on July 1 in the Commonwealth of Virginia (VA State Code 46.2-1078.1). This means a driver can be stopped by a law enforcement officer and receive a summons for typing, sending or reading a text message while driving. If your vehicle is lawfully stopped at a stop sign or red light, texting is not illegal. The first offense carries a fine of $125 and second or subsequent offenses are $250.

Holiday Shopping Safety

Again this year, many shoppers will be out early searching for bargains at holiday sales. Unfortunately, criminals will be out as well. Here are 10 tips to help you shop safely while getting those great holiday bargains throughout the shopping season.

- Do not buy more than you can carry. Plan ahead by shopping with a family member or friend.
- Shop online with companies you know and trust. Check a company's background if you are not familiar with it. Remember, if a deal sounds too good to be true, it usually is.
- Save your receipts. Print and save all confirmations from online purchases. Use a folder to keep all receipts together and to help you verify credit card or bank statements as they come in.
- Consider alternate options to pay for your online merchandise, such as one-time or multi-use disposable credit cards or money orders.
- Wait until asked before taking out your credit card or checkbook. An enterprising thief would love to shoulder surf to get your account information.
- Deter pickpockets by carrying your purse close to your body or your wallet inside a coat or front trouser pocket.
- Have your keys in hand when approaching your vehicle. Check the back seat and around the car before getting in.
- Do not leave packages visible in your vehicle. Lock items in the trunk or, if possible, take them directly home before making other stops.
- Tell a security guard or store employee if you see an unattended bag or package.
- If you are shopping with children, make a plan in case you get separated. Select a central meeting place and make sure children know they can ask mall personnel, store security and store employees if they need help.

(from Chesterfield County Neighborhood Watch Newsletter)

Auto Larceny

With cold weather approaching, many people like to warm up their cars in the morning before leaving for work or school. Unfortunately, many individuals are leaving their vehicles unlocked, which makes them easy to steal. There have been several incidents like this already this year. If you want to warm up your car, please lock the door and have a second key with you. Another option is to install a remote starter. Don't invite unsavory characters into your home - remember to keep garage doors closed and locked at all times. Keep your vehicles locked and don't store holiday packages or other valuables in the car.
